Madam/ Sir,

Please refer to the instructions issued vide circulars dated 29.12.2022, 05.01.2023, 25.01.2023, 20.02.2023 and 23.04.2023 regarding the Hon'ble Supreme Court judgment dated 04.11.2022 in Sunil Kumar B. vs. Others. This circular is in continuation of the earlier instructions issued vide above circulars.

Notification of the Government

2. The following provisions have come into force on the 1st day of September, 2014. vide GOI notification S.O. 2061(E) Dated 03.05.2023 :

"(i) In respect of members who have exercised joint option for contributing under the provisions of paragraph 11 of the Employees' Pension Scheme, 1995 and who are found eligible, the employer's contribution shall be nine and forty-ninth per cent. (9.49%) of the basic wages, dearness allowance and retaining allowance of each member by increasing one and sixteenth per cent. (1.16%) from the extant eight and one-third per cent. (8.33%); and

(ii) the increased contribution shall be applicable to basic wages, dearness allowance and retaining allowance to the extent such basic wages, dearness allowance and retaining allowance exceed fifteen thousand rupees per month."

3. To give effect to the above notification there will be need to undertake following:-

- i. In all eligible cases of Joint Options, there will be a requirement for accounting 1.16% additional contribution on the pay above Rs. 15,000/- p.m. of the employer share to the Pension Fund.
- ii. Similarly, in eligible cases of Applications/Joint Options, where past remittances on higher pay were made in Provident Fund but not in Pension Fund, adjustments will be required for 8.33% contribution from the employer's share.
- iii. In case of acceptance of joint option of members who are still in service and OIC has passed the requisite speaking order, the present employer shall continue to pay pension contribution on higher wages in future also including the increased 1.16% on wages above Rs. 15000/- per month.

Calculation of Dues

4. The dues will be calculated by the Field Office after the verification of wage details submitted by the employer(s) and taking care of following in the process:-

- i. Each member/pensioner's case shall be processed in a separate file, created in e-office with clear marking of the Application ID (system generated acknowledgement number for online application for validation/joint option).
- ii. In case of exempted establishments, the wage details for the entire period and the matching contribution should be available with the exempted establishments and consistent with the records of the Trust.

5. Dues should be calculated month wise in the following manner:

- i. 8.33% of employer's share on higher pay (w.e.f. 16.11.1995 or the date the pay exceeds the wage ceiling; whichever is later) will be calculated as per records.
- ii. 1.16% of employer share on higher pay above Rs. 15,000/- p.m. (w.e.f. 01.09.2014) will be calculated as per records towards increased contribution.
- iii. All amounts already deposited into Pension Fund shall be deducted from sum of 5 (i) and 5 (ii) above.
- iv. The interest to be charged on dues as calculated above shall be the interest earned by the members on their PF accumulations.

- a. For un-exempted establishments, the interest shall be calculated at the rate declared under Para 60 of EPF Scheme, 1952.
- b. For exempted establishments, the interest shall be calculated at the rate declared under Para 60 of EPF Scheme, 1952 or at the rate declared by the Trust of exempted establishment from time to time, whichever is higher, if any.

Classification of Applications for validation/Joint Options

6. The Field Office will examine each case and classify it into the following categories:
 - i. Dues calculated have already been fully remitted to the EPS in the due months
 - ii. Dues calculated have not been remitted to the EPS but contribution on higher wages have been fully remitted to EPF and there is adequate balance in PF account.
 - iii. Dues calculated have not been remitted to the EPS but contribution on higher wages have been fully remitted to EPF and there is inadequate balance in PF account or the PF account is with trust of PF exempted establishments.
